Meeting Minutes MGCC Meeting June 20, 2019

By Dan Suter, Secretary

The meeting was opened at 7:30 by Vice-Chair Rob Shrader. 34 people were in attendance. Minutes from the May meeting were motioned, seconded, and accepted. No new members or guests this month.

Gil and Betty Langswager are celebrating their 67th wedding anniversary in June- congratulations to Gil and Betty!

Treasury – Leon Zak was absent this month--no treasury report.

For activities: the club is still seeking an Activities director.

- Mike Robinson described the upcoming (6/22) ice cream run.
- Hollis Hames gave a report on the Tune-up Clinic held in May at Edison Tech – 7 cars, 14 attendees, and somehow 3 dozen donuts were consumed...
- A summary of the Hammondsport run was given. It was a good run, including an enjoyable visit to the Corning Glass Works museum.
- An upcoming American Legion car show and chicken BBQ was noted (apologies, I did not capture the date).
- On July 27, there will be a car show in Farmington, at the former site of our car show.
- At the Geneseo warbird air show in July, if you show up in your classic car you get free admission and special parking in front.

Membership: Paul Osborne was absent this month--no membership report.

Regalia: Mike Robinson gave updates on hat orders, availability of shirts, patches. Rod Rodman shared a prior MGCC/multi-marque T-shirt design which Mike is having recreated. Mike will look into having MG umbrellas made available.

Spokes: Don McConnell asked for articles and photos – items are due the Thursday following each monthly meeting.

Advertising: Al Fink reported that Black's Hardware in Irondequoit is a new advertiser.

Watkins Glen: Dave Wild reported no new updates for the vintage weekend, and also noted Watkins Glen has formally backed out of the Woodstock reunion concert which had been planned for August. If anyone wants to be the first on a waiting list for a Seneca Lodge rooms, please contact Dan Suter.

Dave Chase requested that a blank page be published in Spokes in honor of deceased member Desi Benet. It was noted that her memorial service was beautifully done and well attended by the membership.

Librarian: Al Costich was absent –no report.

Website: Leon was absent—no report. It was noted that the street address for the car show was slightly in error – Joe B texted Leon from the meeting, and Leon immediately fixed it!

Car Show: Joe Bellizia gave the report. The location looks great; there was discussion of basket donations (what generally is popular = beer and wine!), T-shirts, posters printed and distributed. Please be sure to register your car, and also volunteer to work!

Old Business: Spokes conversion to e-mail is scheduled for the August issue. Please respond via the website if you wish to pay the extra fee to continue receiving Spokes mailed to you.

New Business: none.

Other topics: Don McConnell was contacted by Michael Clapgood's widow to indicate his cars had been appraised and will be going up for sale. Don to publish details in Spokes.

Projects and various member updates: Mike Robinson shared progress on his MGTF project –final fitting of the body is now completed, so the body has been removed for paint. (note: it is a beautiful restoration underway—Dan). Dan Suter noted that the donor chassis for the Daimler SP250 has been fully disassembled. With a few localized repairs, it will soon get new outriggers and then go for sandblasting and chassis paint—and will then be a great basis for the restoration.

Cars and Parts for Sale: Bob Abels is offering his white Jensen Healey for sale – it is a later model with the 5-speed. It was noted that there was a modern 3-wheel Morgan at Geneva Foreign and Sports.

Following door prizes, the meeting was closed at 8:22PM.
