THE CHAIRMANS CORNER by Don Stahl

EXCERPTS FROM DUNKIRK

Quote from Bill Baller at 6:00 breakfast (Sat.) "You think my eyes look bad from there, you should see them from inside!" More eggs, more coffee, off to the start. Larry Bubel starting the day right by mending the gas line on his Jag with a few dabs of sewing glue (see photo #6) First checkpoint, waiting for car #1, disk jockey program on the short wave--from where? -- Australia!! Requests from...Balli Islands of course! O.K.-- down to business--Beep, Beep, Beep--Here comes the 1st car! There he goes! Come back here Bob Clark! Check point #1 died at 9:30 with three cars still missing....Off to the Iroquois Motel to set up checkpoint #5. Everyone knows the shortest distance between checkpoints is the N.Y.S.Thruway but does anyone know if Bongo and ~~Morroc~~ playing is legal on the Thruway? Joker at coffee shop, "How fast will that little car go?" 140 MPH of course and buzzed away to prove it! (?)????

Check point #5-- everything running smoothly- the afternoon was spent scoring the tour- Dinner at the White Inn--Social Director Bill Baller arrived with 224 cans of beer-little get-together tonight! ---Rain---no one cares--results of tour announced at 9:30 in front of party room #1 - party gets underway full force:

---Pyramid of beer cans steadily growing outside of room
---Official Bongo player Gordon Rogers gets down to some serious Bongo playing with assistance from about 30 people.
---Camera's click-flashbulbs pop...
---Pyramid gets taller.....more rain, more wind, more people... more beer, more talk, more bongo's, more,more,more.....
Bill McGovern leaves for bed.....Pyramid falls, more noise!...
Bunny hop at 3:00 AM (it took 3 tries but was finally accomplished after a fashion).....Bill McG. comes back to the party.....
Then...Silence.....(at last)...Party's over--everyone to bed!

Sunday Morn...Red eyes...no showers...no water. Mabel Bubel found out why!!!

To the races: Norm Webb places 2nd in class- everyone cheers! Beulah Bailey - 3rd in class - more cheers! Barry Budlong - 1st- everyone's hoarse but still more cheers!

Comes the rain - 20 people under an army blanket - a moaning, pulsating, dripping mound on the hill - more rain...run for the cars and into town for coffee...rain stops, sun comes out, back to the track - more rain - etc.etc.etc.

Suddenly time has run out...the weekend is over...Dunkirk is left behind, not forgotten, never will be, but the Thruway leads to Rochester, the home front where planning will soon get underway for the next event.

THE TOUR TO DUNKIRK
(or How to Get Lost Without Trying)

by Carl Clark

At 8:06:00 on May 31st, we were off in a cloud of dust on the tour. All was going well till we came to Rout 36. My esteemed driver, Bill "Fangio" McGovern, decided to take the left fork. But as I saw the sun on our left and the instruction said, "Don't go North on 36", I began to wonder. About two miles further, we decided we had better beat a hasty retreat and get back on course. (I think Bill went off course on purpose so he could fly low and get the feel of the car while he made up time)

All seemed to be going well; we made up most of our lost time by the first check-point and managed to make the rest stop without too much trouble.

As we left the lunch stop, I figured it was .33 mile to our turn (48 seconds), but somehow we missed that! That coffee sure didn't wake us up. The next thing I remember was a little conversation about going West on Route 20. Well, we finally ended up going West and sometime later (12:06:26), ended at the motel. It was a good rallye and both Bill and I enjoyed it. I guess we goofed less than everyone else because as I sipped a can of beer in the rain (---was my third or fourth---), I dimly remember getting a piece of hardware. At least I saw some hardware! My driver and trophy have disappeared. Oh well, that's the breaks.

ELMIRA RALLYE

A really good time was enjoyed by the contingent from Rochester that travelled to Elmira for the May 25th rallye sponsored by the Central N.Y. Centre. The rallye was of the simple timed-direction type and was well organized and laid out.

The six cars from our centre placed as follows:

MEETINGS:

At the May 23rd meeting we were fortunate enough to have as guest speaker, Don Rothe of Webb Motors who discussed the ins and outs of SU Carburetors with the membership. This lecture was highly enjoyed by everyone and we hope for more of the same in the future.

The next meeting will be held June 27th, at the R.G.D.A. Bldg, Franklin Square at 8:00 PM. The schedule for the evening will include a movie of interest to the members.
